

DEADLINE: OCTOBER 15, 2008

PUNCH Gallery presents an international call for artist projects. The winning project will be exhibited at PUNCH Gallery, located in the Pioneer Square area of downtown Seattle, during the month of December, 2008, and will provide an excellent opportunity to gain exposure within the Northwest regional art scene.

Artists from any country may submit a project proposal in any medium. In addition to solo or group exhibitions within the category of visual arts, artists are encouraged to submit project proposals in the fields of new media, video, sound, installation, theatre, music, or any other project appropriate for the gallery space.

The entrant will be responsible for the installation of the project, shipping of works, and any costs relating to the project. PUNCH will, however, provide an honorarium to the winning applicant to help cover travel and expenses. In addition to providing our space for the month of December, PUNCH will also provide a printed announcement, vinyl lettering for the window, and a case of wine for the opening.

Members of PUNCH are not eligible to enter.

JURY

Entries will be reviewed, and the winning project will be selected by the PUNCH Gallery Board of Directors.
